

THE Light HAS COME

A LIGHT ON THE HORIZON

Part 2 – Isaiah

The prophet Isaiah spoke to a world wrapped in darkness, but his words carried a spark of hope: A great light was on the horizon. Seven hundred years later, we see that light blazing in the form of Jesus, Immanuel—God with us. Whether it’s the promise of a child who will be called Wonderful Counselor or the vision of a light for all nations, Isaiah’s prophecies point to the ultimate Christmas gift: hope for the hopeless and guidance for the lost. Today, we still walk in a world full of shadows—fear, loneliness, and uncertainty—but the light of Christ isn’t just for ancient Israel; it’s for everyone, everywhere. This season, let the promises of Isaiah remind you that God’s light shines even in your darkest night, leading you toward joy, peace, and purpose.

1. God was the _____ of the _____.
2. Jesus was the _____ from the _____.
Ephesians 1:3–4; Isaiah 7:14; Jeremiah 33:15
3. Jesus is the _____ that was _____.
Matthew 1:21–23